Infosys Technologies Limited ("Infosys" or "the company") today announced financial results for its third quarter ended December 31, 2000. Revenues for the quarter aggregated $ 114.9 million, up 120.1% from $ 52.2 million for the quarter ended December 31, 1999.

Net Income was $ 34.0 million ($ 15.4 million for the quarter ended December 31, 1999) and net earnings per ADS were $ 0.26 ($ 0.12), after making a provision of $ 3 million towards the company's investment in EC Cubed Inc., in the current quarter.

"Our Fortune 1000 clients maintain their focus on embracing the new economy paradigm – they continue to trust us with large, strategically important, technology-intensive projects at globally competitive price points", said N. R. Narayana Murthy, Chairman and CEO. "While we intend to grow at rates compatible with the software export industry in India, the organization is fully prepared to tap larger market opportunities and meet the consequent growth challenges. "

E-commerce engagements comprised 28.3% of revenues for the quarter, as against 31.4% for the quarter ended September 30, 2000. Dot-com start-up companies accounted for 5.8% of total revenues for the quarter – down from 9.5% for the quarter ended September 30, 2000. Telecommunication and other start-up companies accounted for 3.5% of total revenues for the quarter – up from 2.7% for the quarter ended September 30, 2000.

"Several market studies published recently refer to a slowdown in IT spending in the United States. Further, many of our clients have issued earnings warnings", said Nandan M. Nilekani, Managing Director, President and COO. "However, we have polled many of our large clients, and believe that the trend in IT spending will work in our favor. It is encouraging that most of our clients have expressed a desire to expand the scope of their relationship with Infosys. This puts us in a position to grow at industry-compatible growth rates."

As on December 31, 2000, Infosys had 250 active clients, of which 26 were new clients added in the quarter. “Dot-com and venture funded clients enabled us to garner expertise in niche technology areas. We leveraged this opportunity to provide high-technology solutions to large corporations around the world”, said S. Gopalakrishnan, Deputy Managing Director. “However, given recent conditions in the capital markets, we intend to reduce our exposure to this segment. We aim to work more selectively in this space, with adequate de-risking measures in place, and thereby continue to keep ourselves abreast with the latest technological developments.”

EC Cubed Inc., a US-based provider of B2B e-commerce solutions in which Infosys had made a strategic investment, filed for liquidation during the period. Infosys had invested an amount of US$ 3,000,000 in EC Cubed during the quarter ended March 31, 2000. The company also has trade receivables amounting to approximately US$ 1,000,000 for services rendered to EC Cubed. Pending the conclusion of liquidation proceedings, the company has provided for the entire amount of the investment and receivables in its income statement for the quarter ended December 31, 2000.

“Our investments are key to Infosys’ strategic objectives of gaining access to niche technologies and markets. We have leveraged the expertise derived from our relationships with our investee companies to deliver value to large clients across the globe”, said S. Gopalakrishnan, Deputy Managing Director. “We have recently evaluated all our investments and are comfortable with them. As a policy, Infosys evaluates all its investments regularly and makes adequate provisions whenever there is significant impairment in the value of the investment.”

“We have accelerated our plans for the creation of physical infrastructure and training facilities in order to meet our growth objectives”, said T. V. Mohandas Pai, Director - Finance and Administration, and Chief Financial Officer. “Our unique business model coupled with prudent risk management and cost control enables us to absorb the costs associated with this accelerated growth, in terms of strategic bench, training and infrastructure amortization costs, without materially impacting margins.”
